OPENING SENTENCES

A GENERAL THANKSGIVING (To be said by the Whole Congregation, all Kneeling)

ALMIGHTY God, Father of all mercies, we, thine unworthy servants, do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving-kindness to us, and to all men; We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all, for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we beseech thee, give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful; and that we show forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up our selves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

The Lesson. Ephesians III; v. 14 to 21

Psalm 67, Deus Misereatur Dudley Buck, E flat

GOD be merciful unto us, and bless us : and show us the light of his countenance, and be merciful unto us;
That thy way may be known upon earth: thy saving health among all nations.
Let the people praise thee, O God: yea, let all the people praise thee.
O let the nations rejoice and be glad: for thou shalt judge the folk righteously, and govern the nations upon earth.
Let the people praise thee O God: yea let all the people praise thee.
Then shall the earth bring forth her increase: and God, even our own God, shall give us his blessing.
God shall bless us: and all the ends of the world shall fear him.

The Apostles' Creed, Versicles and Collects

Te Deum Laudamus Dudley Buck (Festival) E flat

Te Deum laudamus

WE praise thee, O God : we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.
All the earth doth worship thee : the Father everlasting.
To thee all Angels cry aloud : the Heavens, and all the Powers therein;
To thee Cherubim and Seraphim : continually do cry,
Holy, Holy, Holy : Lord God of Sabaoth;
Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty of thy glory.
The glorious company of the Apostles : praise thee.
The goodly fellowship of the Prophets : praise thee.
The noble army of Martyrs : praise thee.
The holy Church throughout all the world : doth acknowledge thee;
The Father : of an infinite Majesty;
Thine adorable, true : and only Son;
Also the Holy Ghost : the Comforter.
Thou art the King of Glory : O Christ.
Thou art the everlasting Son : of the Father.
When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man : thou didst humble thyself to be born of a Virgin.
When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death : thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.
Thou sittest at the right hand of God : in the glory of the Father.
We believe that thou shalt come : to be our Judge.
We therefore pray thee, help thy servants : whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.
Make them to be numbered with thy Saints : in glory everlasting.
O Lord, save thy people : and bless thine heritage.
Govern them : and lift them up for ever.

Day by day : we magnify thee;
And we worship thy Name : ever, world without end.
Vouchsafe, O Lord : to keep us this day without sin.
O Lord, have mercy upon us : have mercy upon us.
O Lord, let thy mercy be upon us : as our trust is in thee:
O Lord, in thee have I trusted : let me never be confounded.

HYMN, No. 459, Tune "Hanover" William Croft, 1708

"O worship the King, all glorious above," Robert Grant, 1833

SERMON BY RT. REV. PETER T. ROWE, D.D., Bishop of Alaska

OFFERTORY ANTHEM, "Gloria in Excelsis"
from H. Farmer's Mass, B flat

GLORY be to God on high, and on earth peace, good will towards men. We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.

O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ; O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us.

For thou only art holy: thou only art the Lord; thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

ORGAN RECITAL, played by MR. RALPH KINDER, Organist, Church of the Holy Trinity

1 MARCH FOR A CHURCH FESTIVAL W. T. Best (1826–1897)

A most appropriate number for a festal occasion. Dr. Best was for nearly forty years the distinguished City Organist of Liverpool, England.

2 BERCEUSE A. Guilmant (1837–1911)

The works of this writer of scholarly organ music cover an exceedingly large area, ranging from a Lullaby to a Symphony. This Lullaby with its beautiful melody and soothing quality makes friends wherever it is heard.

3 ORGAN CONCERTO IN D MAJOR G. F. Handel (1685–1759)

Allegro—Andante con moto—Fugue

It is not generally known that with a few exceptions the so-called organ concertos of this composer of wonderful music are not original creations for that instrument, but were compiled and arranged by him from earlier instrumental works of a different character. The first movement of the concerto about to be played is from the Sixth Oboe Concerto; the second movement from the Sixth Organ Concerto; and the last movement from the Second Concerto for Violins, Viola, Violoncello, Contra-bass and Harpsichord.

4 RELIGIOUS MELODY WITH VARIATIONS G. E. Whiting (1842–)

Mr. Whiting's musical activities for almost half a century have been centered in the State of Massachusetts, although his influence for all that is highest and best in his art has been general. It is in the second movement of his splendid Organ Sonata in A Minor that we find this attractive and churchly melody with its accompanying five variations.

5 { CAPRICE / AT EVENING / EXULTEMUS } R. Kinder (1876–)

Three original compositions played by request. The first is of a light and playful character; the second breathes the spirit of the day about to close; while the third, like the opening number of the recital, is for a festal occasion.

It is respectfully asked that strict silence be observed during the playing of the recital.
